

IFMA CHICAGO CHAPTER PROGRAM ANNOUNCEMENT

THURSDAY ♦ January 19, 2006

"Insights into the CFM/FMP Certification"

Presented by your Chicago Chapter CFM's
Metropolitan Chicago Healthcare Council
222 South Riverside

Program Highlights

Learn about sitting for the CFM exam from those within our chapter who have successfully completed the test. Gain an understanding of the time commitment, complexity level, topics covered, tools available to help with preparing for the exam, and what the designation has meant in these professionals careers. We will also answer any questions relative to the FMP designation.

CEUs and CFM Maintenance points have been applied for.*

Speakers

Cynthia Dvorak is Facilities Management Director at Sidley Austin LLP, an international law firm with its main office in Chicago. She has been in facilities for over 17 years and she acquired her Certified Facilities Manager (CFM) designation in December 2002. Sidley recently completed the build out of over 500,000 sq.ft. of space at One South Dearborn and the relocation of more than 1,200 personnel.

Mary Meyer is the Assistant Vice President – Facilities Management for Bankers Life and Casualty Company. She has been in real estate and facilities for over 15 years. Mary's expertise covers the full scope of real estate acquisition from site selection and lease negotiation to construction to day-to-day facility operations. She acquired her Certified Facilities Manager (CFM) designation in April 2005.

Mark Radtke is a former Regional Facilities Manager for Nextel Communications. He has been in facilities for over 15 years. Mark's expertise covers the full scope of real estate acquisition from construction to day-to-day facility operations with a strong emphasis in project management. He acquired his Certified Facilities Manager (CFM) designation in 1998 and recertified in 2004.

Pat Moonier is the Technical Services Manager, Chief Operations Office, Argonne National Laboratory. Pat has been working in the area of facilities management for over fifteen years. Pat achieved the CFM designation in February 2005, and a Master's Degree from DePaul University in June 2005.

Dom Ruggerio - Upon retiring from the Army as a Colonel, Dom joined Deloitte & Touche LLP as the Director of Administrative Services and Facilities and remained with them until forming Ruggerio & Associates, Inc. in 1997. Ruggerio & Associates Inc. is a multi-faceted Professional Service Consulting firm. Dom is a Certified Facilities Manager.

Agenda

11:30 a.m. Registration and Reception
12:00 p.m. Program Begins
1:00 p.m. Questions & Answers

RSVP

Call the Chapter Office by Wednesday, January 16 at 312-236-0900
Or reply via email – click here!

When RSVPing, please be sure to provide us all contact data of each attendee!
$20 Members ♦ $45 Non-Members ♦ Check or Cash at the Door ♦ No-shows billed